

MILK TO COST MORE

Cent a Gallon Added to Last Year's Summer Price.

DROP FROM WINTER RATE

Discussion of Indictments Against New York Dealers—No Fixed Price Set in Washington.

The summer price of milk, which comes into effect May 1, will be higher than the rate last year.

This was decided upon by the Milk Producers' Association of the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, which met at its semi-annual meeting at 623 Louisiana avenue.

A price of 15 cents per gallon wholesale for the next five months was agreed upon by the association. This price is one cent a gallon higher than the summer rates last year. It is 10 cents lower, however, than the rate set last October, now in force, which continues until the 1st of next month.

Lower Price Voted Down.

A motion was made by one member to set the price at 14 cents a gallon. Upon vote the motion was defeated by a large majority. The second motion for 15 cents was unanimously carried.

The wholesale price of cream a gallon was set at 70 cents. This is a decrease of 5 cents over the price set by the association for the same period of five months last summer.

A number of members contended that they were unable to get as much as 15 cents from the dealers in Washington. Others said they received that price and even more during the summer months.

Milk Indictments Discussed.

John Thomas of Ednor, Md., president of the association, called attention to recent indictments in New York against milk producers who had set a high price on milk. He declared that the producers in New York set a certain price for buying and selling, whereas the dealers in Washington do not. He said some of the members obtain more than the price set by the association, while others sell theirs at less.

A motion was adopted to pay the president of the association an annual salary of $500, another motion that provided for a representative at each station from which milk is shipped to the District, to collect the annual assessment of one dollar from the members. It was stated that many have failed to pay the treasurer.

ART FRAUD MAY END

Exposures Calculated to Put Stop to Sales of Forgeries.

FAKE "REMBRANDTS" MANY

Rocheport Believes Eight in Ten in American Galleries Are Spurious.

PARIS, April 20.—The revelations made in the case of Count de Galigny, who, with the countess, is being examined at Tours on a charge of having misrepresented the origin of paintings and the antiquity of furniture purchased by Mrs. Charles H. Payne of this city, but formerly of Boston, have caused a profound impression in the world of art and served to open up the whole question of the many-sided traffic in sham paintings, other works of art and antique furniture.

Many "Rembrandt" Frauds.

Although the declarations of Henri Rocheport, editor of the Patte, regarding the Rembrandts may constitute a satirical exaggeration, it is the general opinion that there is a nucleus of truth in his assertion that celebrated collections in hundreds of homes in America and elsewhere contain spurious Rembrandts as well as copies of other masters. M. Rocheport has said that 80 per cent of the "Rembrandts" owned in America are forgeries.

"I have seen so many Turners," said M. Rocheport, "that I have almost decided that Turner never existed. He could not have turned out the works attributed to him if he had lived 200 years. It is the same with Rembrandt. I never could convince my American friend that his collection of the school of 1830, containing 'Millet's' and 'Corots,' was not genuine. But I did convince him of the falsity of his works of one great living artist, for the artist himself, upon seeing the pictures, exclaimed: 'I will send you the name of the man who said I did that.'"

May Put End to Frauds.

The recent exposures are hailed here as helping to check the brazen frauds perpetrated in France and elsewhere, and as a warning to foreigners to buy masterpieces with the greatest caution. The newspapers pursue the Galigny affair with avidity, and are immensely amused over the various reports of how the count entered the most exclusive society. Early photographs of Galigny show a handsome young man, dressed in the uniform of a chancellor of the Order of Melusine, his breast literally laden with ribbons and medals.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.

West Point Cadet Before National Guard Court-Martial.

Everett C. Crear, who was a musician in Company A, 10th Regiment, New York National Guard, up to March 1 this year, when he entered the United States Military Academy at West Point, was tried before a militia court-martial at Albany, N. Y., recently on a charge of perjury. When the 10th Regiment was at camp at Crown Point last June, Crear was accused of having poured oil of pennyroyal into the face of another private. When the court of inquiry investigated the accusation, Crear was accused of the act, but on two different occasions denied it. Finally, he admitted that he dropped the pennyroyal on the private's lip merely as a practical joke. The court of inquiry referred the case to Gov. Hughes, who directed Crear's trial by court-martial.

Crear entered a formal plea of not guilty, and made a statement to the court that he did not have a perfect understanding of the meaning of the word "perjury" before the court of inquiry. Two occasions, but finally, when called the third time, admitted that he had told the truth, and felt that he made ample explanation at that time.

The result of the militia trial will affect Crear's status at the United States Military Academy.

Bryan Chats With President.

W. J. Bryan left Washington last night for Lincoln, Neb. Late in the afternoon he spent an hour with President Taft. The two men exchanged reminiscences of travel. Mr. Bryan said his call was purely social and the tariff or other political subjects was not discussed. President Taft enjoyed the visit.
